Claim Number: XXX

Dear Claimant:

You are receiving this letter because you or someone on your behalf filed a Proof of Claim form in the jointly-administered chapter 11 bankruptcy cases of Residential Capital, LLC ("ResCap"), GMAC Mortgage, LLC and other affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, Case No. 12-12020 (MG) (the "ResCap bankruptcy case"), and we need additional information from you regarding the claim(s) ("claim") you are asserting against one or more of the Debtors.

The Information we Need From You Regarding Your Proof of Claim:

We reviewed a copy of the Proof of Claim form and documents, if any, that you filed in the ResCap bankruptcy case. A copy of your Proof of Claim form is enclosed for your reference. After reviewing the Proof of Claim form and any documents you submitted, we have determined that you did not provide sufficient information to support your "Basis for Claim" and we do not have sufficient information to understand the calculations you used to determine the amount you claim to be owed. In order to evaluate your claim, we need to understand the specific reasons as to why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one or more of the Debtors. Please reply using the attached form and provide a written explanation, with supporting documentation, and include a detailed explanation of how you calculated the amount of your claim.

You Must Respond to this Letter by no Later Than July 22, 2013:

In accordance with the Order of the Bankruptcy Court (Docket No. 3294, filed March 21, 2013), you must respond to this letter by no later than July 22, 2013 with an explanation stating the legal and factual reasons why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one or more of the Debtors as of May 14, 2012 (the date the Debtors filed their bankruptcy cases). You must provide copies of any and all documentation that you believe supports the basis for and amount of your claim. A form is included with this letter to assist you in responding to our request for additional information.

Consequences of Failing to Respond:

If you do not provide the requested information regarding the basis for and amount of your claim and the supporting documentation by July 22, 2013, the Debtors may file a formal objection to your Proof of Claim on one or more bases, including that you failed to provide sufficient information and documentation to support your claim. If the Debtors file such an objection and it is successful, your claim may be disallowed and permanently expunged. If your claim is disallowed and expunged, you will not receive any payment for your claim and any other requests you may have made for non-monetary relief in your Proof of Claim will be denied. Therefore, it is very important that you respond by the date stated above with the requested information and documentation supporting the basis for and amount of your claim.

For Those With a Mortgage Loan Originated or Serviced by One of the Debtors:

If your claim relates to a mortgage loan that you believe was originated or serviced by one of the Debtors, please be sure to include the loan number and property address that the loan relates to in the information and any documentation that you send us, so that we can effectively search our records for information on your property and loan, and evaluate your claim.

Questions:

If you have any questions about this letter, or need help in providing the requested information and document(s), you should contact an attorney. You may also contact the Special Counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors¹ with general questions (contact information provided below):

Dear Claimant:

You are receiving this letter because you or someone on your behalf filed a Proof of Claim form in the jointly-administered chapter 11 bankruptcy cases of Residential Capital, LLC ("ResCap"), GMAC Mortgage, LLC and other affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, Case No. 12-12020 (MG) (the "ResCap bankruptcy case"), and we need additional information from you regarding the claim(s) ("claim") you are asserting against one or more of the Debtors.

The Information we Need From You Regarding Your Proof of Claim:

We reviewed a copy of the Proof of Claim form and documents, if any, that you filed in the ResCap bankruptcy case. A copy of your Proof of Claim form is enclosed for your reference. After reviewing the Proof of Claim form and any documents you submitted, we have determined that you did not provide sufficient information regarding the claim amount. In order to evaluate your claim, we need you to reply using the attached form and provide a specific explanation of how you calculated the amount of your claim and also provide sufficient documentation to support the amount you have claimed.

You Must Respond to this Letter by no Later Than July 22, 2013:

In accordance with the Order of the Bankruptcy Court (Docket No. 3294, filed March 21, 2013), you must respond to this letter by no later than July 22, 2013 with an explanation stating the legal and factual reasons why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one or more of the Debtors as of May 14, 2012 (the date the Debtors filed their bankruptcy cases). You must provide copies of any and all documentation that you believe supports the basis for and amount of your claim. A form is included with this letter to assist you in responding to our request.

Consequences of Failing to Respond:

If you do not provide the requested information regarding the basis for and amount of your claim and the supporting documentation by July 22, 2013, the Debtors may file a formal objection to your Proof of Claim on one or more bases, including that you failed to provide sufficient information and documentation to support your claim. If the Debtors file such an objection and it is successful, your claim may be disallowed and permanently expunged. If your claim is disallowed and expunged, you will not receive any payment for your claim and any other requests you may have made for non-monetary relief in your Proof of Claim will be denied. Therefore, it is very important that you respond by the date stated above with the requested information and documentation supporting the basis for and amount of your claim.

For Those With a Mortgage Loan Originated or Serviced by One of the Debtors:

If your claim relates to a mortgage loan that you believe was originated or serviced by one of the Debtors, please be sure to include the loan number and property address that the loan relates to in the information and any documentation that you send us, so that we can effectively search our records for information on your property and loan, and evaluate your claim.

Claim Number: XXX

Dear Claimant:

You are receiving this letter because you or someone on your behalf filed a Proof of Claim form in the jointly-administered chapter 11 bankruptcy cases of Residential Capital, LLC ("ResCap"), GMAC Mortgage, LLC and other affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, Case No. 12-12020 (MG) (the "ResCap bankruptcy case"), and we need additional information from you regarding the claim(s) ("claim") you are asserting against the Debtors.

The Information we Need From You Regarding Your Proof of Claim:

We reviewed a copy of the Proof of Claim form and documents that you filed in the ResCap bankruptcy case. A copy of your Proof of Claim form is enclosed for your reference. According to our records, you have filed a lawsuit against one or more of the Debtors. Please reply using the attached form and let us know whether the basis for and amount of the claim contained in the Proof of Claim form are the same or different in any way from the claim you have asserted in your lawsuit against the Debtors. Please ensure that you provide specific detail and support as to the basis for and amount of claim referenced in your Proof of Claim. If your lawsuit has been dismissed or withdrawn, please provide a specific explanation as to why you believe that you are still owed money or entitled to other relief from one or more of the Debtors.

You Must Respond to this Letter by no Later Than July 22, 2013:

In accordance with the Order of the Bankruptcy Court (Docket No. 3294, filed March 21, 2013), you must respond to this letter by no later than July 22, 2013 with the requested information and an explanation stating the legal and factual reasons why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one or more of the Debtors as of May 14, 2012 (the date the Debtors filed their bankruptcy cases). You must also provide copies of any and all documentation that you believe supports the basis for and amount of your claim. A form is included with this letter to assist you in responding to our request for additional information.

Consequences of Failing to Respond:

If you do not provide the requested information regarding the basis for and amount of your claim and the supporting documentation by July 22, 2013, the Debtors may file a formal objection to your Proof of Claim on one or more bases, including that you failed to provide sufficient information and documentation to support your claim. If the Debtors file such an objection and it is successful, your claim may be disallowed and permanently expunged. If your claim is disallowed and expunged, you will not receive any payment for your claim and any other requests you may have made for non-monetary relief in your Proof of Claim will be denied. Therefore, it is very important that you respond by the date stated above with the requested information and documentation supporting the basis for and amount of your claim.

For Those With a Mortgage Loan Originated or Serviced by One of the Debtors:

If your claim relates to a mortgage loan that you believe was originated or serviced by one of the Debtors, please be sure to include the loan number and property address that the loan relates to in the information and any documentation that you send us, so that we can effectively search our records for information on your property and loan, and evaluate your claim.

Claim Number: XXXX

Dear Claimant:

You are receiving this letter because you or someone on your behalf filed a Proof of Claim form in the jointly-administered chapter 11 bankruptcy cases of Residential Capital, LLC ("ResCap"), GMAC Mortgage, LLC, and other affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, Case No. 12-12020 (MG) (the "ResCap bankruptcy case") and we need additional information from you regarding the claim(s) you are asserting against the Debtors.

The Information we Need From You Regarding Your Proof of Claim:

We received and reviewed a copy of the Proof of Claim form filed on your behalf, and noticed that it did not have any supporting documents attached to it. In order to evaluate your claim, we need to specifically understand why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one or more of the Debtors. Although you may have stated the factual or legal basis for your claim on the first page of the Proof of Claim form, you have not provided any documentation to support this claim. Therefore, we need you to provide us with documents that support the basis for your asserted claim. A copy of your Proof of Claim form is enclosed for your reference.

You Must Respond to this Letter by no Later Than June 24, 2013:

In accordance with the Order of the Bankruptcy Court (Docket No. 3294, filed March 21, 2013), you must respond to this letter by no later than June 24, 2013 with an explanation that states the legal and factual reasons why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one or more of the Debtors as of May 14, 2012 (the date the Debtors filed their bankruptcy cases), and you must provide copies of any and all documentation that you believe supports the basis for your claim. Included with this letter is a form to assist you in responding to our request.

Consequences of Failing to Respond:

If you do not provide the supporting documentation by June 24, 2013, the Debtors may file a formal objection to your Proof of Claim on one or more bases, including the basis that you failed to provide sufficient information and documentation to support your claim, and your claim may be disallowed and permanently expunged. If your claim is disallowed and expunged, you will not receive any payment for your claim and any other requests you may have made for non-monetary relief in your Proof of Claim will be denied. Therefore, it is very important that you respond by the date stated above with the requested information and documentation supporting the basis for your claim.

If your claim relates to a mortgage loan that you believe was originated or serviced by one of the Debtors, please be sure to include the loan number and property address that the loan relates to in the information and documentation that you send us, so that we can effectively search our records for information on your property and loan, and evaluate your claim(s).

The Information we Need From You Regarding Your Proof of Claim:

We received and reviewed a copy of the Proof of Claim form and document(s), if any, that you filed in the ResCap bankruptcy case. A copy of your Proof of Claim form is enclosed for your reference. In the process of reviewing the Proof of Claim form and the document(s), if any, you submitted, we noticed that you left the "Basis for Claim" field on the Proof of Claim form blank, or indicated that the basis for your claim is "unknown". In order to evaluate your claim, we need to understand why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one of the Debtors.

You Must Respond to this Letter by no Later Than June 17, 2013:

In accordance with the Order of the Bankruptcy Court (Docket No. 3294, filed March 21, 2013), you must respond to this letter by no later than June 17, 2013 with an explanation that states the legal and factual reasons why you believe you are owed money or are entitled to other relief from one of the Debtors as of May 14, 2012 (the date the Debtors filed their bankruptcy cases) and, you must provide copies of any and all documentation that you believe supports the basis for your claim. Included with this letter is a form to assist you in responding to our request.

Consequences of Failing to Respond:

If you do not provide the basis for your claim and the supporting documentation by June 17, 2013, the Debtors may file a formal objection to your Proof of Claim on, among others, the basis that you failed to provide sufficient information and documentation to support your claim, and your claim may be disallowed and permanently expunged. If your claim is disallowed and expunged, you will not receive any payment for your claim and any other requests you may have made for non-monetary relief in your Proof of Claim will be denied. Therefore, it is very important that you respond by the date stated above with the requested information and documentation supporting the basis for your claim.

If your claim relates to a mortgage loan that you believe was originated or serviced by one of the Debtors, please be sure to include the loan number and property address that the loan relates to in the information and documentation that you send us, so that we can effectively search our records for information on your property and loan, and evaluate your claim.
